SUBJECT: Contract Employee

2. [redacted] official home of record and his place of entry into the Air Force is Atlanta, Georgia. As I understand it, according to Air Force Regulations, [redacted] will be paid by the Air Force for moving his family and his personal effects only for the distance from Albany, Georgia to Atlanta, Georgia. However, [redacted] would like to locate his family in Phoenix, Arizona - his wife's home for the duration of his employment with this Agency. Project Comptroller has advised me that he feels paragraph 4. b. of the contract authorizes payment by the Agency to cover that part of the cost of moving [redacted] family to Phoenix which is not covered by Air Force Regulations.

3. In a long-distance telephone conversation with [redacted] on or about 8 May 1956, I advised [redacted] that he would be reimbursed for the above expense. He advised me that he was storing his furniture in Albany, Georgia and would proceed with his family to Phoenix by automobile.

4. It is my further understanding that the Agency will pay the storage cost on his furniture but that he may not make such a claim until he has actually departed for an overseas base at which time storage expenses for the period during which he was in training in the ZI will be paid to him.
